

In the framework of the Euro-American Colloquia on Citizenship – 2005 edition, Fondaca - Active Citizenship Foundation, Boston University and Boston College, are glad to invite you to attend the Seminar:

Reforms to Activate Citizenship and Improve the Quality of Democracy in Europe on Thursday, December 1, 2005 - 9:30 to 11am at BOSTON UNIVERSITY, 154 Bay State Road (1st floor, room 102)

Keynote speaker

Philippe C. SCHMITTER

Professor Fellow, European University Institute, Florence

Introductory remarks

Giovanni MORO, President, FONDACA - Active Citizenship Foundation

Discussants

Charles DERBER, Professor of Sociology and Political Economy, Boston College

Vivien SCHMIDT, Jean Monnet Professor of European Integration, Boston University

Sidney VERBA, Carl H. Pforzheimer Professor, Department of Government, Harvard University

The Euro-American Colloquia on Citizenship is a program of the Active Citizenship Foundation, aimed at filling the information gap on differences and similarities between European and American citizenship through specific events in the US and in Europe.

Fondaca, Active Citizenship Foundation, Via Flaminia 71, 00196 Rome, Italy. Tel. +39 06 36006173 – fax +39 06 3207495 www.fondaca.org - home@fondaca.org