

With the support of:

Italian Institute of Culture New York
Unicredit
Bristol Myers Squibb
Enel
Italian Commercial Chambre New York
Province of Rome

In the framework of the Euro-American Colloquia on Citizenship – 2005 edition, FONDACA - Active Citizenship Foundation and the Institute for the Study of Europe at Columbia University invite you to attend the lecture

Reforms to Activate Citizenship and Improve the Quality of Democracy in Europe

by

Philippe C. SCHMITTER

Professor Fellow, European University Institute, Florence

on

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 2005

6:00 P.M. – 8:00 P.M.

AT THE GRADUATE STUDENT LOUNGE, ROOM 301 PHILOSOPHY HALL

1150 AMSTERDAM AVENUE

NEW YORK CITY

DISCUSSANT

Mark KESSELMAN, Professor of Political Science, Columbia University

WELCOME SPEECH

Volker R. BERGHAHN, Director, Institute for the Study of Europe, Columbia University

INTRODUCTION

Giovanni MORO, President, FONDACA

CHAIR

Nadia URBINATI, Associate Professor of Political Theory, Columbia University

RECEPTION

The Euro-American Colloquia on Citizenship is a FONDACA program aimed at filling the information gap on differences and similarities between European and American citizenship through specific events in the US and in Europe.