FONDACA - Active Citizenship Foundation was created in 2001. It is based in Rome, Italy.

The mission of FONDACA is to contribute to the growth, sharing and better use of the knowledge and scientific information on the emerging phenomenon of citizenships.

This phenomenon is intended as the fulcrum of democratic dynamisms and of the forms of governance of today's societies; using civic activism as a main point of reference and promoting or supporting partnerships with public, private and social actors engaged in these practices at local, regional and international level.

'Europe for Citizens' Programme

Boston, 28th January, 2008

Boston, 28th October, 2008

New York, 30th October, 2008

The "Euro-American Colloquia on Citizenship" was instituted in 2003 to help overcome the "transatlantic divide" about citizenship between Europe and United States.

The program consists in promoting the exchange of knowledge and information on the experience on state of the two citizenships, by involving scholars and actors from the public arena (political, institutional, private, social and civic).

The choice of the theme citizenship comes from the desire to focus the debate on the differences and similarities of one of the key elements of American and European identity.
