

DON GRIESMANN'S NONPROFIT BLOG

There is a special issue of my blog dedicated only to current international grants. I have included here a list of countries and topics.

The Wednesday, March 4, 2009 e-newsletter of Don Griesmann's Grant Opportunities™ will include international and U.S. domestic grants. I have published over 50 new and updated grant announcements the past 7 days with more being added at Don Griesmann's Grant Opportunities™ (DGGO) almost daily.

There are over 150 open and available grants published the past 30 days.

New this week is international announcements concerning -

- Afghan refugees as well as their host communities in Pakistan
- Grants for NGOs in Kosovo, Serbia, Macedonia, and Montenegro
- Income Generation and Legal Assistance for displaced persons in Serbia and/or Montenegro
- HIV/AIDS prevention, care and treatment in Bangladesh
- Social Entrepreneur Awards in South Africa, South Asia, East Asia and Israel
- South Africa Fellowship Program

There is a description of five (5) international grant opportunities with links at the blog that are currently open in addition to those referred to above and others within the past thirty days.
