

PATHWAYS THROUGH PARTICIPATION: WHAT CREATES AND SUSTAINS ACTIVE CITIZENSHIP

'Pathways through participation: what creates and sustains active citizenship' is an exciting new qualitative research project looking at how and why people get involved and stay involved in different forms of participation in their communities.

Starting in April 2009, this project is funded by the Big Lottery Fund and will be led by the National Council for Voluntary Organisations (NCVO) in partnership with the Institute for Volunteering Research (IVR) and Involve.

There are three research positions available for this project – one in each organisation:

Research Development Officer Ref: RDO62
