

Reminder – One month left for submitting applications to the 2nd EMES PhD Summer School
The deadline for submitting application is next 15 March 2010

EMES, in partnership with the Centre for Social Entrepreneurship (Roskilde University), organizes its 2nd international summer school for PhDs, titled "The three SE pillars: Social Entrepreneurship, Social Economy and Solidarity Economy". The summer school will take place in Roskilde (Denmark) from 30 June through 3 July 2010.

If you are interested in participating, please visit the 2nd EMES Summer School web page (<http://www.emes.net/index.php?id=495>), which contains all the related information and downloadable documents (including the Application Form, the Preliminary Program and other practical information).

For more information about this summer school, you can also contact Rocío Nogales (info@emes.net).

Please do not hesitate to distribute this information within your networks and among interested PhD students!

Important dates:

Monday, March 15th - Closing date for applications.

Monday, April 12th – Notification of the outcome of the application process to the applicants.

Monday, May 3rd - Deadline for formalizing registration.