This is a four year contract funded by The National Lottery through Big Lottery Fund.

South West Forum needs someone who really understands the voluntary and community sector, has excellent project management skills and a very good grasp of social research practice to manage a major new research project. The project will explore the economic impact of third sector activities tackling social disadvantage and strengthen partnerships between higher education and the third sector.

You will be joining a small, friendly and dynamic organisation widely recognised as the leading voice of the voluntary and community sector in the South West. We have recently moved to modern office premises in the Innovation Centre at the University of Exeter where you would be able to access university facilities.

Deadline for applications: 5pm, Thursday 27th May 2010.
