

Euro-American Colloquia on Citizenship

American Session

In the framework of the *Euro-American Colloquia on Citizenship Program

FONDACA
Active Citizenship
Foundation

and

The European Union
Studies Center
City University of New York

invite you to attend the lecture

FEEDING OURSELVES, FEEDING THE WORLD: Food, Governance and Sustainability

by

Paolo Barilla

Vice President of Barilla G & R Fratelli, Italy

on

Wednesday, OCTOBER 28, 2009

5:30 P.M. – 7:30 P.M.

Rooms 9206/9207

The Graduate Center, The City University of New York, 365 Fifth Avenue

- OPENING REMARKS: Hon. Francesco Maria TALO', Consul General of the Consulate General of Italy in New York.
- INTRODUCTION: Giovanni MORO, President, FONDACA - Active Citizenship Foundation
- CHAIR PERSON: Hugo KAUFMANN, Director, European Union Studies Center, City University of New York.
- Panel members: Robert KENNER, Food, Inc., producer; Leonardo MAZZEI, Senior Communications Specialist, The World Bank.

Seating is limited. RSVP by October 27, 2009 (acceptances only). Please note that no responses will be accepted on the day of the event. Tel: 212 817 2053; E-mail: eusc@gc.cuny.edu; Web address: euromatters.org.

*The Euro-American Colloquia on Citizenship is a program of FONDACA, aimed at filling the information gap on differences and similarities between European and American citizenship through specific events in the US and in Europe, started in 2003.

With the support of:

Consulate General of Italy
in New York

Bristol-Myers Squibb

ETHICON ENDO-SURGERY
a Johnson & Johnson company

Lilly

Risposte che contano.